Oh, they will get together and wrangle and wrangle some more and it may break up in a row. The truth of the matter is that Richmond and Norfolk flave no business in a league with Roanoke, Lynchburg and Danville and even Petersburg, soed town that it is, can hardly be classed with the two biggest cities in the State—two cities with a greater population than the ether feur put together.

Drop Richmond and Norfolk, and take in Portsmouth and Novport News. This may be a new proposition, but thousand of people here in Richmond would be glad if Richmond were iropped from the Virginia League. It would give them a rest from the mittation article, and they could at least live happy in the hope that when Richmond did get baseball again it would be the real article.

Wake Forest College Is De- Greentree

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., November 1.—
Virginia played to-day its last game scheduled for the home grounds, defeating Wake Forest College, of North Carolina, by the score of 29 to 8. Four of the five touchdowns made by the Virginia team came in the first half, the score at the end of the second quarter being 23 to 0. Near the close of the third quarter Quarterback Utiey, of Wake Forest, nabbed an onside kick on Virginia's thirty-yard line, and, with a clear field, ran for a touchdown. Savage kicked goal.
Virginia's last touchdown came early in the fourth period, when by straight line plunging, the ball was advanced from the middle of the field across the Baptists' goal line, Todd making the final plunge.
Virginia was without the services of Captain Wood and one or two other regulars, and the ceaches were therefore very much pleased with to-day's showing.
Carter took Wood's place at centre, the position he used to fill at Lawrenceville, and was in the limelight almost as much as ever, lifs tackling kept the crowd in a good humor. Rediis held down right guard and put up the best game of any of the linesmen. Wilson got his arm hurt in the second quarter, and gave way to Jones, the former Virginia Polytechnic Institute end, who performed cleverly. Todd, Goodhus and Yager starred in the backfield.
Virginia's next game is with Johns Hopkins. The line-up: And as to prices—you will be agreeably surprised to know that good clothes cost so little.

Georgia is Defeated in Snappy, Well-Played Game, Nashville, Tenn., November 4.—Vanderbilt defeated the University of Georgia football team here this afternoon in a snappy, well-played game, by the score of 17 to 6. During the entire first period the ball seesawed up and down the field, neither side scoring. Ray Morrison, of Vanderbilt, made a ninety-yard run for a touchdown, which was disallowed on account of holding in Vanderbilt's line, Vanderbilt made two touchdowns in the second quarter and one in the third.

the second quarter and one in the third.
Georgia showed a strong offense at times, and with the use of the forward paiss they gained many yards during the last stages of the game. On straight football, however, the Georgians were unable to make their distance consistently, despite the wonderful work of McWhorter, who was the bulwark of the Georgia eleven. Just after the last quarter began Georgia made a series of forward passes, with an occasional eng run and tackle play, netting about fifty yards. However, when the cruckal point arrived, either their offense weakened or Vanderbilt's defense brace; up, for Georgia could mark.

Through a ruling made by Referce Gass in the football game yesterday between V. F.
